

Making an Apology

Based on what we have learned in class, make a list of the things you should say to apologize in each situation. Be sure to think about how you might make an apology mean more or less using modifiers.

Situation	What would you say?	Why did you pick that structure?
You just bumped into a stranger on the street.
You are 30 minutes late to meet a friend at the coffee shop and need to call to apologize.
You are 30 minutes late to meet a professor in her office and call to apologize.
You are borrowing a friend's laptop to work and accidentally dump your coffee on the keyboard.

Now, in pairs, create an apology dialogue for each scenario. Record a video of your favorite to share with the class.
