

NAME: _____

Making Plans with Others

Instructions:

1. Find a partner. Choose one person to be partner A and one to be partner B.
2. Partner A invites Partner B to do an activity. You may choose from the list of ideas or make up your own.
3. Partner B will then flip a coin:
 - a. If it lands on heads, they will accept the invitation and ask follow up information about where to go, when to meet, what to bring, etc.
 - b. If it lands on tails, they will politely decline the invitation and give an excuse as to why they cannot accept.
4. Switch roles so that now Partner B is doing the inviting and Partner A is doing either the accepting or declining. Continuing switching roles until your teacher tells you to stop. Be sure to record yourself once on your device so you can upload it as evidence.

Ideas for inviting:	Ideas for declining:
Go to the movies	Too much homework
Study together at the library	Work
Go out to dinner	Chores
Grab a coffee	Parents need your help
Play sports together	Volunteer work
Watch TV	Feeling sick
Attend a birthday party	Too tired
Go to a theme park	Don't like it
Go to the beach	Etc.
Etc.

5. After the activity is finished, write down your best or most interesting invitation OR excuse:

6. Upload your recorded evidence to your LFO to Go account under the appropriate Can-Do Statement. Adjust your tab based on how you feel you can perform this task (This is a Goal, I Can-Do with Help, I Can-Do).
7. Look at upcoming Can-Do Statements and set a goal for yourself for upcoming lessons.
