

SimCity BuildIt: SimCity BuildIt is a mobile-based city-building game, where players act as a mayor of a town, and have to build houses and infrastructure, provide services, and produce resources. Players can trade with others, and have to keep a high enough happiness percentage for their Sims to stay in their city. SimCity BuildIt has many classroom applications for all levels. It is a fun way to get learners involved in thinking and talking about real-life cities.
