Part A: As you play SimCity BuildIt, record your decisions and goals as mayor.

Ex: I wanted to have a 100% happiness percentage, so I built more parks.

Part B: What did you succeed in? What did you not succeed in?

---

Part C: Get in pairs. In your target language, research a mayor in a community that uses your target language. Find an article about the person, and record it here. You can choose your audience and format, but be sure to tailor your message according to the audience and format that you choose (think about register of language and the common characteristics of your selected format). The information you find should tell you something about the leader's goals, struggles, or decisions. Write a short paragraph below describing what you found. Compare it with your experiences as a mayor in SimCity BuildIt.

First, fill out the following four questions for what you will be writing.

Your role: mayor comparing your role to that of another city leader. _____

Your audience: _____

Your format: _____

Your topic: leadership goals, struggles, and decisions. _____

Where did the information come from (site/newspaper/etc): _____
