

This War of Mine* gameplay handout

Play Day 1 and Day 2 of This War of Mine with your group. As you play, take notes of how the characters feel emotionally and physically below. This information can be found in the conversations that the characters have with one another and in the status cards at the bottom right corner of the screen. Remember, you are not expected to understand every word that you see. Work with your group to use context, cognates, and linguistic patterns to make inferences about meaning and to gain a general understanding of what is happening in the game narrative.

Notes:

Answer the questions below as completely as possible as if you were one of the game characters.
