

TELL Framework Area	Guiding Question	Favorite Indicator
Environment	How do you create a safe and supportive learning environment to prepare for student learning?
Planning	How does your planning of learning experiences prepare for student learning?
The Learning Experience	How do you provide meaningful learning experiences that advance student learning?
Performance & Feedback	How do you and your students use performance and feedback to advance student learning?
Learning Tools	How do you and your students capitalize on a variety of learning tools to maximize student learning?
Collaboration	How does your collaboration with stakeholders support student learning?
Professionalism	How does your continued growth as a professional support student learning?

Now re-examine your seven chosen indicators. Choose the ONE that is most engaging for you at this time. Re-open the relevant self-reflection document, and read the criteria that are associated with it. Choose one criterion that you feel you are especially strong at (“I do this with confidence”), and write it below:

Finally, reflect on how your chosen strength relates to some of the other TELL Framework areas. For example, if I select “My students and I interact with the local and global target language communities to advance intercultural competencies” (under Learning Tools), I will reflection on how this strength also enhances my collaboration and professionalism.
