

Extending an Invitation

Observe: Your teacher will show you a series of videos. While you watch, take notes on how the invitations are given. Pay attention to the language used, as well as gestures, demeanor, and how readily the inviter accepts the invitee’s response.

Video 1:

What is the relationship between the inviter and invitee? How much difference in power between them, and how close are they socially?

How is the invitation extended? What language do they specifically use?
Are there any gestures used while the invitation is given?
How does the inviter act?
How does the invitee act?
Does the invitee accept? How?

Video 2:

What is the relationship between the inviter and invitee? How much difference in power between them, and how close are they socially?

How is the invitation extended? What language do they specifically use?
Are there any gestures used while the invitation is given?
How does the inviter act?
How does the invitee act?
Does the invitee accept? How?

Video 3:

What is the relationship between the inviter and invitee? How much difference in power between them, and how close are they socially?

How is the invitation extended? What language do they specifically use?
Are there any gestures used while the invitation is given?
How does the inviter act?
How does the invitee act?
Does the invitee accept? How?

Class Skit

What is the relationship between the inviter and invitee? How much difference in power between them, and how close are they socially?

How is the invitation extended? What language do they specifically use?
Are there any gestures used while the invitation is given?
How does the inviter act?
How does the invitee act?
Does the invitee accept? How?

Analyze:

What were some differences you noticed between the ways invitations were extended?

What were some similarities between the ways invitations were extended?

Why do you think the differences exist?