

Which mode (Interpersonal, Interpretive, Presentational) is represented by each example? What skills are necessary to communicate in each example?

Gabriella gave a presentation during her Zoom meeting and listened to their classmates feedback.

Mode:
Skills:

These two best friends record a podcast every week about their adventures traveling.

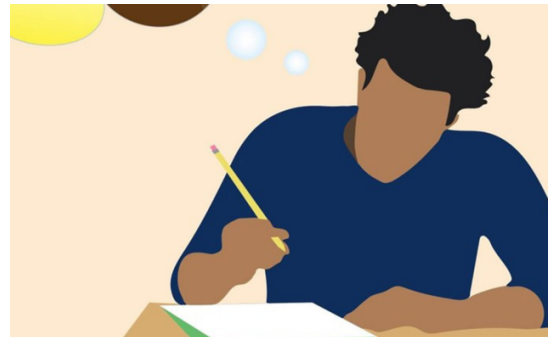

Mode:
Skills:

ASL interpreted classes, lectures, and presentations can be delivered through Zoom.

Mode:
Skills:

Writing reports and essays is part of school.

Mode:
Skills:

Reading can also be a group activity.

Mode:
Skills:

Texting is a good way to keep in touch with family and friends we can't see all of the time.

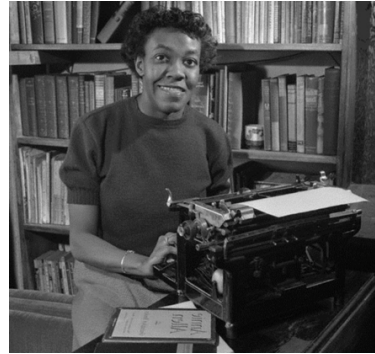

Mode:
Skills:

Listening to your favorite podcast can be a good way to relax.

Mode:
Skills:

Gwendolyn Brooks, a Pulitzer Laureate for Poetry, is seen writing on her typewriter here.

Mode:
Skills:

Keeping up with the world's news is one way to stay informed.

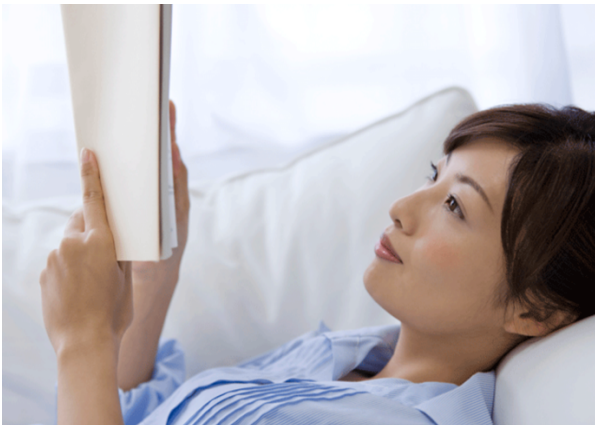

Mode:
Skills:

A birthday card can brighten someone's day!

Mode:
Skills:

Reading can be a fun activity during school breaks.

Mode:
Skills:

Hanging out and catching up with friends is really fun!

Mode:
Skills: