

Working With Presentational Speaking

Situation 1: You are talking with a group of friends, and another friend of yours approaches the group. Introduce them to your group of friends and share some details about them!

Is this (circle one) interpersonal speaking or presentational speaking?

What does your friend do? What are they good at? Introduce them!

Situation 2: You are asked to speak about one of your role models in class. Write a few sentences of a presentation you would give about them!

Is this (circle one) interpersonal speaking or presentational speaking?

What are this person's accomplishments? What are they known for? Introduce them!

Situation 3: You are now introducing the same friend from Situation 1 at a learning conference! How would you change your introduction from Situation 1 to fit this situation? Write this new introduction below.

Is this (circle one) interpersonal speaking or presentational speaking?

What are your friend's accomplishments? What are they known for? Introduce them!