

These example English conversations are included as examples for educators. Educators should create their own conversations (or find examples) in the L2.

Conversation 1

John: Well, it's really getting late.

Alice: You are welcome to stay as long as you like!

John: Thanks, Alice. But I really need to get going.

Alice: Okay...if you're sure [Hugs John and walks with him to the driveway]

John: Before I go, what are you doing next weekend? My friend and I are going to the game. Want to join us?

Alice: That would be awesome! When do you want to meet?

John: Saturday at 1:00. Come to my house, and we can drive together.

Alice: Great. I can't wait.

John: Awesome [Hugs Alice and starts to get in the car]. Oh! Did you see that it is supposed to snow this week? I can't believe it.

Alice: Me neither. It's 70 degrees today!

John: Better get the coats out. [Buckles seat belt]. Bye, Alice.

Alice: Bye, John.

Conversation 2

Montez: Well, it's getting really late.

Alicia: You're right. I should probably get going.

Montez: Thanks so much for coming over. I had a great time.

Alicia: Me too! And thanks for the delicious dinner!

Montez: Anytime. Bye, Alicia.

Alicia: Bye, Montez.

Conversation 3

Isla: [Leaves party without saying goodbye at all]

Partygoers: [Plan to leave the same way, for the most part]